Answer the following questions on paper, in a typed document, by video, or by audio file

1. What do the words inclusion, equity, and diversity mean to you?
2. What does it mean to be an advocate for someone?
3. Think about the words helping and serving. What do you think the difference is and how does this difference apply to fighting for justice?
4. Share a time when someone initiated a difficult or uncomfortable conversation with you. How did you react? What would you do differently today?
5. Reflect on a recent situation where you've been the "only one." How did the situation impact your behavior? What did you learn?
6. What do you wish to learn about race, racial justice, diversity, and inclusion? What do you wish to gain from this program?
